

Job Search Safety Tips

Valid or legitimate Job Bank ads will not ask for any banking or personal information or for any money deposits.

We recommend that you do not provide personal or sensitive information in your resume, such as:

- Your Social Insurance Number.
- Your age, marital status, birth date,
- Your driver's license number,
- Your health card number,
- Your banking or financial information, which includes credit card or bank account numbers and any Personal Identification Numbers (PIN)

Certain information may be discussed with a prospective employer, only after the hiring process has begun. If a job posting seems questionable, please don't hesitate to contact us .
